Gaza

¶5. (SBU) ATTACKS:

-- Deaths: Nil.

-- Injuries: According to UNRWA and Israeli media, four Palestinian militants affiliated with the Popular Resistance Committee were wounded December 9 when an Israeli aircraft fired a missile at a car near Sufa crossing in the Gaza strip. According to UNRWA, four Palestinian militants belonging to the Popular Resistance Committee (PRC), were wounded in the attack, including the primary target, PRC leader Jamal Abu Samhadana.

--Injuries: According to UNRWA, the IAF also fired a missile at a house containing munition production facilities -- Qassam rockets -- in Bayt Lahiyah December 9, injuring several people. The house belonged to Mahmoud al-Madhouri, a local Al-Aqsa Martyrs Brigade leader.

-- Mortars/Rockets: Israeli media reported that Palestinians fired a Qassam rocket at the perimeter fence near the Sufa crossing and a mortar round at a settlement near Gush Qatif on December 10. No injuries were reported in either incident.

-- Shootings: The IDF reported two shooting incidents on December 9, one near Gush Katif and the other one in Rafah Yam, but no injuries resulted.

-- Explosions: Nil.

16. (SBU) INCURSIONS/DEMOLITIONS: Nil.

17. (SBU) BORDER CROSSINGS:

-- Route Four (Salahadeen Road), the main north-south traffic artery, was open with a major detour at Netzarim Junction.

-- Erez Crossing was open for internationals and diplomats and for a limited number of Palestinians. According to UNRWA, 200 Palestinian laborers crossed on December 10. UNRWA reported that the IDF announced it would now allow national staff of UN organizations to cross at Erez in vehicles, rather than on foot, with prior coordination through COGAT, but has not yet implemented the new policy.

-- The Erez Industrial Zone remained closed, except for factory owners, on December 10.

-- Sufa Crossing was closed for Palestinian laborers December 10, but was open for the import of aggregates used in construction.

-- Karni Terminal was open, but reportedly operating slowly.

-- Rafah Terminal was open for arrivals and departures December 10. Although the IDF no longer prohibits the exit of male Palestinians age 16-35 from the Gaza Strip, lengthy checks at the border mean that few Palestinians in this category are actually able to exit. There are no age restrictions for entry into Gaza.

-- Tel al-Sultan checkpoint was closed December 10. Toufah checkpoint was open for residents of al-Mowassi.
